The House

Travel is not accumulation.

It is interpretation.

*We choose depth over display,
context over spectacle,
presence over performance.*

Luxury, to us, is time.

Time to arrive, to understand, to feel.

*We curate journeys that make sense
and stay with you.*

BLU Costa — The House of Travel Curation

The People Behind BLU

Born and raised in Lisbon, Tiago brings a historian's and architect's eye to every journey.

Adriana, a world travel journalist, brings a storyteller's sensibility to the details that matter.

Together, we curate journeys across Portugal and Spain, designed not simply to see more, but to feel each place more deeply.

We look forward to interpreting yours.

Adriana and Tiago

How We Curate

Every journey begins by understanding rhythm and what should remain.

We do not assemble trips.
We interpret them.

Curation is the discipline of choosing what belongs and shaping how moments connect.

Our work moves through four lenses:

Journeys in Cities

Journeys on the Land

Journeys of Craft

Journeys in Time

Not categories of tourism, but ways of shaping meaning.

Every BLU journey is curated to make sense
and stay with you.

How We Work with You

Every journey begins with a conversation.

We listen carefully to understand what draws you to a place and how you prefer to travel.

Some travelers simply wish to explore a city on a walking route.

Others invite us to design and accompany their entire journey.

From there, we begin selecting places, encounters, and moments that connect meaningfully with your interests.

We are here for you, whether you already know what you want or you are still shaping the idea.

Our role is to interpret that intention and transform it into travel that feels memorable.

From Adriana

Along the Atlantic coast, the landscape opens into wide horizons.

Cliffs meet the sea.

Villages face the wind.

And the ocean sets the rhythm of each day.

As we follow this coastal road, Portugal appears through fishing villages, open beaches, and viewpoints along the Atlantic.

I hope that along this stretch of coast, you feel the presence of the ocean and discover the landscapes and villages that live beside it.

Adriana Lage

Oh, the great, salt-heavy blue! The vastness where the soul becomes liquid and the heart becomes a ship!

corners on the Atlantic road
to inspire you.

ÓBIDOS

Óbidos feels like a storybook brought to life, where medieval walls embrace whitewashed houses and centuries of history unfold at every turn.

As you wander its cobbled streets, tradition, craftsmanship, and quiet beauty reveal themselves in small, meaningful details.

It is a place to slow down, explore with curiosity, and experience Portugal in its most timeless and poetic form.

Why it stays with you

Medieval atmosphere

A sense of timelessness

An unhurried rhythm

ERICEIRA

Ericeira lives between village life and the Atlantic's restless horizon, where fishing traditions and surf culture meet in harmony.

White houses cascade toward the sea, boats return each morning with the day's catch, and the rhythm of the tides shapes the pace of life.

It is a place to slow down, breathe in the ocean air, and feel Portugal through salt, light, and the steady presence of the Atlantic.

Why it stays with you

The Atlantic horizon

A village shaped by the sea

The quiet rhythm of coastal life

BEACH LUNCH

At the edge of the Atlantic, Praia da Adraga offers a pause between cliffs, sea air, and the sound of waves reaching the sand.

Nearby, a small restaurant long known as one of Queen Amélia's favorite places welcomes travelers with simple seafood and views over the beach.

Here, the kitchen stays close to the sea: grilled fish, clams with garlic and olive oil, and other fresh catches prepared simply, allowing the flavor of the Atlantic to remain at the center of the table.

Why it stays with you

Lunch beside the Atlantic

A place once loved by a queen

Time to play between sand and sea

Beauty lives in stone, light, and the patience of time.

SINTRA OLD TOWN

Recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, the old town of Sintra carries the presence of centuries of royal life.

Narrow streets and small squares shape a steady rhythm, where palaces, noble houses, and historic buildings remind visitors of the town's long connection to the Portuguese court.

As you wander, traces of time appear quietly in the streets, the façades, and the way the town continues to live around its history.

Why it stays with you

The charm on its medieval streets

The contrast of layers

The picturesque palaces on the hills

CABO DA ROCA

Cabo da Roca is a place where the land seems to pause before meeting the ocean, standing at the westernmost point of continental Europe.

For centuries, this edge of land was believed to be the end of the known world. Even today, that feeling remains, a quiet awareness of distance, depth, and possibility.

Here, wind, sea, and sky take the lead, offering a moment of presence where words feel unnecessary.

Why it stays with you

The feeling of standing at the edge

The openness of the horizon

Its raw beauty

CASCAIS

Cascais carries the ease of a seaside retreat, shaped by time and the pull of the ocean.

Past and present move together here, guided by coastal light, open promenades, and daily life by the water.

The sea is never far, setting a rhythm that invites pause, breath, and simple enjoyment.

Once a favored summer refuge of the Portuguese royal family, the town still holds the relaxed elegance of its seaside past.

Why it stays with you

The coastal mood

The connection to the sea

A feeling of lightness

In Sintra
the gardens are deeper
And the silence is greener and more ancient.

WHEN PLANS SHIFT

Weather Changes

Our journeys take place in most weather conditions. In rare cases of extreme weather, we may need to adjust or reschedule the journey.

You will be offered a full refund or a new date.

A Flexible Approach

The order of the itinerary may shift slightly depending on weather or partner availability — always with your experience in mind.

SINTRA FLEXIBILITY

Please note that in Sintra, occasional last-minute closures may occur due to weather conditions (such as heavy rain) or safety restrictions (such as fire risk).

In such cases, we reserve the right to replace the visit to Pena Palace, or any other affected attraction, with an alternative experience nearby, such as the royal Queluz Palace or the impressive Mafra Palace, both exceptional visits in their own right.

PLANS CAN CHANGE

Rescheduling

Date changes requested more than 48 hours ahead can usually be accommodated, upon availability.

Requests within 48 hours are subject to our cancellation guidelines.

48 hours or more — full refund

48–24 hours — 80% refund

Within 24 hours — non-refundable

Please note: some advance tickets may follow the venue's own policy.

From arrival to departure

What remains for you is simple:

to arrive,
to be present, and to enjoy the journey.

Supporting Your Journey

Every journey begins long before the first step and stays with you long after you return.

Whether you need help with a single reservation or the design of the entire trip,
Blu can assist with the practical details.

Airport and intercities transfers
Chauffer services
Carefully chosen hotels
Dining reservations
Ticket acquisition
Private access to monuments
Private local guardians,
Special celebrations
The pace of each day

Everything is arranged so your time here feels easy and well cared for.

It's why we do what we do.

Transfers & Chauffeur Services

Your arrival should feel easy from the start.

We can arrange your arrival and departure transfers to ensure a smooth start and end to your journey.

Professional drivers will meet you at the airport, train station, or other arrival points and accompany you comfortably to your hotel or next destination.

Routes and timing are planned in advance so you can focus on the journey ahead.

Private drivers can also be arranged throughout your stay for transfers between cities or for exploring the region at your own pace.

Hotel Curation

Where you stay shapes how a place is experienced.

Blu selects hotels for their character, location, and atmosphere: places that reflect your style and the identity of each region.

From historic properties to discreet countryside estates and contemporary urban retreats, each accommodation is chosen with you, for you.

Dining Scene

A place is often best discovered at the table.

Blu recommends and secures reservations at restaurants that reflect local culture and culinary traditions: from refined gastronomy to small establishments known to locals.

We also suggest the traditional dishes of each region, helping you discover the flavors that define each place.

Your food preferences and dietary requirements are taken into account, and reservations are arranged in advance when necessary.

Tickets & Visit Planning

Coordinating access to visits and cultural events

Some visits and cultural events require advance reservations.

We coordinate access to cultural visits as well as theatre, opera, concerts, and other events that may take place during your stay.

Transportation tickets, including train journeys between cities, can also be arranged when needed.

We also advise on the best days and times to visit, how long to allow for each place, and whether a guided visit is recommended.

This helps each visit fit naturally within the pace of your day.

Private Access

Having a monument all to yourselves

Some of the most remarkable monuments and museums reveal a different atmosphere when visited outside regular hours.

Through special arrangements with cultural institutions, we can organize private access to selected sites before opening or after closing time.

Without crowds and with time to observe details quietly, these visits allow a more intimate encounter with places that are usually experienced very differently.

Availability depends on each institution and requires advance planning.

Private Local Guardians

Exploring places with certified hosts

Certain places reveal themselves differently when explored with someone who knows their stories well, we call them Local Guardians.

We collaborate with historians, cultural specialists, naturalists, and other knowledgeable local hosts who bring depth, context, and perspective to each visit.

These encounters are arranged privately, allowing the experience to follow your pace and interests.

Celebrations

Marking meaningful moments

Some journeys carry a special reason: an anniversary, a proposal, a honeymoon, a birthday, or a moment that deserves to be celebrated.

We help create these occasions with thoughtful arrangements that may include romantic dinners, flowers, private picnics, or other experiences designed around your wishes.

The goal is simple: to make the moment feel personal and memorable.

Journey Design

Your journey should reflect who you are.

Blu designs travel around your interests and pace, shaping an itinerary that balances cultural depth and meaningful encounters.

Your itinerary is designed with intention, leaving space for discovery and for simply being there.

The result is moments that make sense and stay with you.

Travel Consultation

Local insight through a dedicated video call.

Some travelers enjoy designing their own journeys and exploring possibilities along the way.

At times, however, questions arise about logistics, recommendations, or how to shape the route.

For those moments, we offer a one-hour dedicated video consultation to help refine your plans with a local perspective.

Video consultation: €50 per hour

Private Travel

Your journey supported from beginning to end.

For those who prefer to travel with complete ease, the entire journey can be arranged with a private driver and guide.

From arrival to departure, routes, timing, and visits are planned together so each day flows naturally.

Your guide accompanies you throughout the trip, handling the details from check-in to parking, reservations, tickets and unexpected situations, so you can simply enjoy the journey.

How a Blu Journey Takes Shape

From a wish to your return home

1. Conversation

We begin by understanding what draws you to a place and how you prefer to travel.

2. Interpretation

We translate your interests into a journey concept, selecting places and moments that belong together.

3. Journey Design

Routes, visits, and pacing are shaped into an itinerary balancing discovery, rest, and meaningful moments.

4. Preparation

Hotels, dining, visits, and logistics are confirmed so everything is ready before your arrival.

5. The Journey

Your time is free to focus on the journey.

Some journeys end.

Others stay with us.

Until we meet.
