DAY 01 – MAR 18, TUE - PORTO - ARRIVAL & DINNER

AFTERNOON

15:30 - Arrival in Porto

16:30 - Transfer from Airport to Hotel

17:00 - Check-in at hotel

Welcome to Porto, a city shaped by its prosperous port wine trade that flourished in the 18th century, especially with the arrival of English merchants who established renowned companies like Sandeman and Offley, bypassing intermediaries. Unlike Lisbon, which suffered significant damage from the 1755 earthquake, Porto remained intact, allowing its rich heritage to be beautifully preserved.

PORTOBAY FLORES HOTEL

PortoBay Flores Hotel is a luxurious retreat in the heart of Porto, blending historic charm with modern elegance. Located in a restored 16th-century palace, it offers exceptional comfort, a serene spa, and fine dining in a prime city location.

19:30 - Transfer to VINUM Restaurant & Wine Bar

VINUM's dining experience brings the best of the north of Portugal and Basque country to the table

The restaurant is nestled at Graham's Port's fully functioning 19th-century cellars where generations of famous Port wines have been aged in over 3,200 oak barrels. The main dining room looks directly onto the barrel cellar, with ancient pine beams supported by cast-iron pillars, which date back to 1890. It is an historic and atmospheric setting, which combines the best food the city of Porto has to offer with an immersive wine experience.

DAY 02 - MAR 19, WED - DOURO: WINERY & OLIVE OIL FARM

Trip: 170 mi, 4h

A road trip from Porto to the Douro Valley is a journey through one of Portugal's most stunning landscapes. As you leave the city behind, the road winds through rolling hills, terraced vineyards, and alongside the shimmering Douro River.

The valley, famous for its Port wine production, offers breathtaking views at every turn. Along the way, we will pass by charming villages, visit historic wineries for tastings, and take in the beauty of this UNESCO World Heritage site, making it an unforgettable scenic adventure.

MORNING

09:00 - Depart from hotel. We'll take a scenic drive through some of the region's most picturesque villages before embarking on one of the trip's highlights: a visit to a traditional olive oil mill.

Here, we'll witness the artisanal production of olive oil, descending the property's slopes in a jeep to explore the cultivation of centuries-old olive trees. Along the way, the owner will share fascinating insights and amusing stories about the land.

To complete the experience, we'll enjoy a tasting of freshly produced olive oil, paired with other homegrown ingredients lovingly prepared by his wife.

DAY 02 - MAR 19, WED - DOURO: WINERY & OLIVE OIL FARM

AFTERNOON

13:30 - We head to Quinta da Pacheca, an exceptional winery, nestled in the heart of the Douro Valley, and one of Portugal's most renowned wine estates, blending tradition with modern sophistication.

You'll dive into the art and tradition of Port wine production and. As you explore the cellars and vineyards, you'll uncover the rich history behind each bottle, and indulge in tastings that bring the region's world-renowned flavors to life.

14:30 - Wine tasting and picnic at Quinta da Pacheca overlooking the vineyards.

16:00 - We head back to Porto

18:00 - Arrive in Porto

DAY 05 - MAR 28, FRI - LISBON BY TUKTUK

MORNING - MONUMENTAL LISBON

10:00 - Discover the historic charm of Belém, Lisbon's iconic riverside district, where history, culture, and gastronomy come together. Marvel at the grandeur of the Jerónimos Monastery and the Belem Tower, both UNESCO World Heritage Sites that echo Portugal's Age of Discovery and savor the world-famous Pastéis de Belém, freshly baked at their original home. Opposite the monastery, the Monument of Discoveries is a striking landmark that is impossible to miss.

This tour is a journey through time, offering a glimpse into Portugal's maritime legacy.

GOURMET BREAK

13:00 - Indulge in a delightful wine-tasting experience at a charming local emporium in Lisbon, where Portugal's finest wines take center stage. Savor a curated selection of red, white, and moscatel expertly paired with artisanal cheeses, flavorful cold cuts, and traditional sausages. Guided by a knowledgeable host, this experience offers a delicious insight into the country's rich culinary and winemaking heritage, perfect for gourmands and wine lovers alike.
