As you approach Nazaré, the Atlantic Ocean comes into view, its vast blue expanse hinting at the seaside adventures to come.

After soaking in the views from above the cliffs, we head towards the beach to savour some of our seafood specialties at one of the great restaurants along the coast.

THURSDAY, SEP 05 - LISBON - NAZARÉ - PORTO

AFTERNOON 1h30 p.m.

After lunch, time to head towards Porto.

But before, we have a quick stop to see the traditional way of drying fish in Nazaré.

At the beaches of Nazaré, rows of sardines are traditionally laid out to dry under the warm Portuguese sun. Women in colorful skirts and headscarves carefully arrange the freshly caught fish on wooden racks, a method passed down through generations.

The salty sea breeze adds a distinctive flavor to the sardines, creating a unique delicacy that reflects the town's deep connection to the sea. As the fish dry, they turn a silvery shade, shimmering in the sunlight and drawing the eyes of passersby who pause to admire this time-honored practice along the picturesque shoreline.

We continue our drive up north, where the landscape gradually transitions from sandy shores to the historic charm of Porto, where the city's terracotta rooftops and famous bridges await. As we approach Porto, the Douro River comes into view, signaling the end of your journey and the start of new adventures in this vibrant city.

We arrive at the hotel at around 4 p.m. so you can get some rest and get ready to dine.
