DOURO TO AVEIRO

MORNING

Trip Distance: Douro - Aveiro [95 mi, 1h40]

From the undulating slopes of the Douro, where tradition and terroir meet, we embark on a journey of discovery towards Aveiro. The scenery will gracefully shift from the sun-drenched vineyards to the soft, coastal plains, a visual narrative that culminates in Aveiro's picturesque waterways and art nouveau façades.

This seamless trip is a prelude to the city's unique allure, promising a captivating arrival.

As we arrive in Aveiro, we'll have a quick stop at Costa Nova, on the seashore, for photos.

With its iconic candy-striped houses, Costa Nova is a vibrant postcard come to life. This charming village, nestled between the calm of the Ria de Aveiro and the open sea, offers a delightful escape. It's a place where timeless fishing traditions meet a joyful, colorful spirit.

LUNCH

Time to savor the authentic flavors of Aveiro, where the local cuisine is a celebration of the sea. Enjoy a lunch centered on the freshest fish, from grilled sea bass (robalo) or sea bream (dourada) to a rich seafood rice (arroz de marisco).

AFTERNOON

Step aboard a traditional moliceiro, a vessel with a history as rich as the city's own. These flat-bottomed boats, once used to harvest seaweed, now offer a serene and elegant passage along Aveiro's canals. As you glide past Art Nouveau buildings and the charming fishermen's quarter, you will witness the city's soul from a unique perspective, a timeless journey on its shimmering waterways.

AVEIRO TO ÓBIDOS

Trip Distance: Aveiro - Óbidos [112 mi, 1h45]

Leaving the coastal elegance of Aveiro behind, we embark on a journey inland to the heart of Portugal's medieval past. The drive to Óbidos is a scenic and relaxing one, a seamless transition from one unique landscape to another. As we approach, the magnificent walled town will emerge like a vision from a fairytale, and you will feel the air of history and romance that defines this exceptional place.

This trip is a bridge between two distinct worlds—the coastal charm of Aveiro and the timeless, storybook beauty of Óbidos.

ÓBIDOS

Entering the gates of Óbidos is to step into a living history book. This perfectly preserved medieval town, enclosed by its ancient walls, invites you to wander its cobblestone streets and discover a world of timeless beauty. The air is filled with the scent of jasmine and the spirit of a bygone era, as you explore quaint shops and admire the traditional whitewashed houses adorned with vibrant bouganvillias.

ÓBIDOS TO LISBON

Trip distance: Óbidos - Lisbon [62 mi, 1h20]

As we leave the timeless walls of Óbidos, our journey continues toward the heart of Portugal's vibrant capital, Lisbon. You'll soon be immersed in the city's lively atmosphere, ready to explore its historic hills, colorful neighborhoods, and monumental sights.

We will take you to your hotel, at Tivoli Avenida, allowing you to rest and refresh at your leisure.
