- Pinoquio, one of the best seafood restaurant in the city center, perfect for satisfying a craving for the sea. An early seating as you'll be tired from the trip.

€€€ Pinóquio Restaurante is a venerable seafood beer hall famous for its clams (€34 splitable portion). You'll dine with a smart, local crowd at white-tableclothed tables yet there's no pretense—the focus is on simple quality (daily until late, big portions, dine inside or outside facing the busy square, Praça dos Restauradores 79, +351 213 465 106).

DAY 02 - MON, DEC 29 - TUK TUK BEST OF LISBON SELECT 6H

✨ A perfectly balanced experience, designed for travelers who seek more depth and comfort. Includes thoughtful touches and curated content that go beyond the basics — for a journey that feels personal, enriching, and memorable.

MORNING - MEDIEVAL LISBON

09:30 - Pick-up at the hotel

Prepare to journey back in time through medieval Lisbon as we explore the characterful neighborhoods of Alfama, Mouraria, and Graça. Here, winding cobblestone lanes, hidden courtyards, and centuries-old façades reveal stories shaped by the city's Moorish and medieval heritage.

Our path leads to some of Lisbon's most iconic miradouros—Graça and Nossa Senhora do Monte—where breathtaking panoramas unfold over São Jorge Castle, the downtown district, and the refined quarters of Bourgeois Lisbon.

While in the Old Town, we will uncover a true hidden gem: the Monastery of Saint Vincent, a 17th-century treasure that has grown in splendor across the centuries.

Returning to the tuk tuk, we'll trace the route of the famous Tram 28 back to Alfama, pausing at the beloved viewpoints of Santa Luzia and Portas do Sol.

Finally, we'll descend through the medieval streets of Alfama, discovering its timeless charm and uncovering the legacy of Lisbon's oldest neighborhood alongside its iconic castle.

LUNCH TIME

13:30 - Savor the flavors of Lisbon with a leisurely meal at one of our handpicked traditional restaurants. Delight in classics such as bacalhau à Brás (shredded cod with potatoes and eggs) or polvo à lagareiro (octopus drizzled with olive oil).

For a lighter option, fresh grilled sardines or ameijoas à Bulhão Pato (clams in garlic, olive oil, and coriander) capture the essence of Portuguese cuisine.

AFTERNOON - BOURGEOISE LISBON

14:30 - Time to cross Baixa towards the elegant neighborhoods of Chiado, Bairro Alto, and Príncipe Real. Along the way, admire the grandeur of the Carmo Convent ruins, soak in the vistas from São Pedro de Alcântara and Edward VII Park viewpoints, and discover traditional shops whose legacy has endured through generations.

16:00 - We'll end the experience with a return to your hotel or, if you prefer, a drop-off in the city center to continue exploring at your leisure.

DINNER

Take out, something close to apartment, no reservation.

Notes: 6h tuk tuk tour, Best of Lisbon City Tour Select - 9:30 to 16h, 560 euros for 4 people

DAY 03 - TUE, DEC 30 - WONDERS OF SINTRA SIGNATURE

MORNING

We begin the day in Sintra, a picturesque village at the foot of the mountain that shares its name. Its unique character led UNESCO to create a special category when designating it as a World Heritage Site — the “Cultural Landscape” — recognizing not only the town’s architectural treasures but also the natural beauty of the surrounding mountains. Covered in lush vegetation, the Sintra Mountains are part of the Sintra-Cascais Natural Park.

08:30 - Pick up at the hotel

09:15 - Arrival at Pena Palace in Sintra

09:30 - Visit the Pena Palace

A romantic architectural masterpiece from the 19th century, it combines elements from different styles, from Gothic to Moorish, resulting in a unique mix of vibrant colors and extravagant details. Built by King Ferdinand II, the Pena Palace is an iconic landmark and a testament to the imagination and creativity of the time. With its imposing turrets and stunning panoramic views, the palace is a popular tourist destination, offering visitors a fascinating experience amid stunning scenery.

11:00 - We head down to the city center, to wander through Sintra’s enchanting medieval alleys and savor its iconic pastry, once a royal favorite.

DAY 03 - TUE, DEC 30 - WONDERS OF SINTRA SIGNATURE

12:00 - We head to the Monserate Palace, embarking on a journey to the romantic heart of Sintra. The palace rises like a fairy tale in stone, featuring Gothic, Indian, and Arab motifs. Discover a world of exoticism and beauty, where lush gardens and stunning architecture merge into a symphony of colors and shapes. Let yourself be carried away by the magic of this unique place, where nature and history intertwine in an unforgettable embrace.

AFTERNOON

13:30 - We continue our journey through the dense forest of Sintra, a place full of legends and mysticism.

Visit to the Convent of the Capuchos, one of Portugal's best-kept secrets. Imagine a convent stripped of any luxury, built in the 16th century at the king's request, amidst rocks in the forest with walls covered in cork to protect the monks from the cold and damp. It is in this setting that we will reveal some of the region's mysteries.

DAY 03 - TUE, DEC 30 - WONDERS OF SINTRA SIGNATURE

15:00 – Continue our drive along the awe-inspiring Atlantic coast, with dune beaches and favorable winds for water sports, and cliffside views reminiscent of France.

15:15 – Mandatory photo stop at Cabo da Roca, the westernmost point of continental Europe. Until the 14th century, it was believed to be the end of the western world.

15:45 - We will have lunch at a typical Portuguese restaurant along the coast, Furnas do Guincho, with the best free catches from the ocean.

17:30 – Return to Lisbon through Cascais, the beach town for the royalty and nobility when it became fashion to go to the beach in the summer.

18:30 – Estimated arrival in Lisbon.

End of our services.

DINNER

As you'll have a late lunch, grab a sandwich and a pastel de nata at A Fábrica da Nata, my favorite custard tart in the city center.

Notes: <https://www.eatingeurope.com/blog/fabrica-da-nata-lisbon/>

DAY 04 - WED, DEC 31 - BELÉM & NEW YEAR'S EVE

MORNING

Located by the Tagus River, Belém is the historic launching point of Portugal's Age of Discoveries, filled with monuments celebrating the nation's explorers and maritime history.

See the beautiful Belém Tower and what is already revealed by the renovation works.

Walk along the river up to the majestic Monument of Discoveries.

Cross the avenue to marvel at Mosteiro dos Jeronimos.

Relax at the quiet and lush Tropical Botanical Garden, a perfect pocket of nature in the city.

LUNCH

Try some of the savory snacks or do like the Portuguese and order a ham and cheese sandwich before indulging yourself with a Pasteis de Belem, in the century old shop.

You can either visit the opulent Museu dos Coches or the interactive Quake Museum.

If you still find time and energy, you can walk along the river up to the 25 of April Bridge, enjoying the view on the Rivershore.

DINNER

20:45 – Clube do Fado. This is a must-do cultural experience! Enjoy an elegant dinner while listening to the melancholic, powerful music of Fado.

Note: Fado venues often serve dinner before the show; plan for this to be your main, later meal of the day

Clube do Fado - Known for its high quality of music. <https://www.clubedefado.pt/> -

Clube de Fado is much classier—one of the best places in town to hear quality fado. While expensive, there's not a bad seat in the house. Music plays nightly in this formal yet intimate setting. When busy, the musicians switch between two adjacent halls, giving waiters time to serve between sets, and diners get music about half the time (plan on at least €50/person for dinner with wine; meals from 19:30, dinner reservations required; music 22:30 until after midnight; after 23:00, pay just €10 cover plus cost of a drink; around corner from cathedral at Rua São João da Praça 94, +351 218 852 704, www.clube-de-fado.com).
